Impact of premium use
Impact on pupils' participation:	More children than ever took part in external events and competitions, with less confident or active children still keen to participate in events such as Multi Skills or Tri Golf. Buying into EVSP, as well as the spending on transport, led to this impact.
Impact on pupils' attainment:	We had great success in 2015-16, reaching the final two of the County Tag Rugby (from around 280 entries); the final four of the County Cricket, as well as winning the district football tournament. Three teams reached School Games in Carlisle, with the Quicksticks Hockey team winning the county title.
How the premium has allowed pupils to develop active lifestyles:	The introduction of a specialist gymnastics coach has led to increased interest and confidence amongst the children, with an after-school gymnastics club now established. The purchase of new equipment has led to increased use of the football pitch during break/lunchtimes; for teaching and an after-school club. Javelins used in teaching of throwing in athletics in summer term.
How the school will sustain the improvements:	Continue to buy in to the EVSP to receive entry to competitions, blocks of external specialist coaching and give as many children as possible the opportunity to participate. Spending on external coaching to increase, giving KS2 children specialist gymnastics coaching. Spending on coach hire will increase as children are given further opportunities to participate in external competitions, including those outside the EVSP, such as Hunter Hall and Casterton cross country. Further spending is needed to replace old or condemned equipment, such as the majority of our gymnastics mats, netball posts and playground Samba goals. Plans to buy in more external specialist coaches to give children opportunity to take part in minority/specialist sports.
